Subject: Sponsorship Confirmation – BE IT Major Project: FlowTech Inventory Management System

Dear Students,

We are pleased to confirm our sponsorship for the BE Information Technology major project titled "FlowTech – Comprehensive Inventory Management System", undertaken by students "Mayur Garje", "Aditya Dhuri", "Sahil Bhatkar" of your institution.

This project aligns with our agency's vision to digitize and automate our distribution operations, eliminating manual inventory processes across 20+ companies.

Scope of Sponsorship:

Owner Admin Panel (Desktop): Real-time order & stock management, role-based access, analytics & reporting.

Salesman Mobile App: catalog browsing, customer & product management, live sync.

Company Portal: Bulk stock updates, delivery tracking, inventory reports.

Automated Systems: PDF billing, real-time sync & backup.

This partnership provides practical exposure for students and contributes to our operational efficiency. You may submit this letter as official sponsorship proof to your college.

We look forward to a successful collaboration.
